SALE OF ALL NEAR BEERS VIOLATION
OF BROOKS HIGH LICENSE LAW

Ever since war-time prohibition went into effect without a proper or understandable general enforcement act there has been more or less confusion in legal and other circles regarding the right of sale of "war beer", "near beer" and other concoctions designed to take the place of the old-fashioned lager.

In fact the average legal mind appeared to be as much muddled by the alleged non-alcoholic or mildly alcoholic beverages as they were supposed to get after taking on board a plentiful quantity of the real old "red likker."

As a result of this uncertainty among the legal fraternity the poor thirsty layman sure was up in the air and knew not what to do or whither to turn. Result again was that he and they "plunged" and drug stores, billiard rooms, restaurants, grocery stores and other establishments all embarked in the "near beer" business and "one-half of one per cent." ran riot down the parched throats of those formerly prone to dally with the cup that cheers.

An end was bound to come and it has finally arrived. To end the uncertainty in Clearfield County, at least, the matter was put up to District Attorney John C. Arnold in his official capacity as public prosecutor, and he was asked to determine just what the laws of Pennsylvania or more properly speaking the Brooks High License Law, provided, and which provisions would have to be invoked in case of any prosecution concerning liquor law violations. Mr. Arnold gave the matter his usual careful consideration and presents herewith his findings in the matter, which we give for the benefit of our readers and the public generally and in order that those dealers engaging in the sale of these beverages may be apprised of its illegality under the law.

Mr. Arnold's opinion follows:

"Out of fairness to persons who may have been innocently engaging in the sale of so-called 'near beer' and other beverages containing low percentage of alcohol, attention is called to the fact that our Superior Court in the case of Commonwealth vs. Wenzel, held: That the sale by persons not having a liquor license of a beverage containing any percentage (however small) of alcohol as an essential ingredient, is a violation of the Brooks High License law. It is no defense to show that the beverage is not intoxicating if it contains alcohol.

JOHN C. ARNOLD
District AttorneyPAYMENT OF $15,000 RANSOM BRINGS
FREEDOM TO CAPTIVE ARMY OFFICERS

BULLETIN, EL PASO, TEXAS, August 19—Lieut. Paul H. Davis and Lieut. Harold G. Peterson, set free by Mexican bandits on payment of $15,000 ransom according to terms laid down by the bandits, are reported to have crossed the American border at a point near Candelaria and not far from Marfa, Texas.

Captain Matlock of the Eighth U. S. Cavalry carried the ransom money to the bandit camp and obtained their release. Captain Matlock was accompanied by a small detachment of guards and Vice President H. M. Fennel of the Marfa, Texas, National bank who had the money in charge.

The aviator's story of their experiences since being captured on August 10th is expected to bear out the belief that they were taken captive on the American side of the border in the Big Ben district by a roving band of bandits who infest the mountains for cattle and any other loot they can find.

Major General Joseph T. Dickman, commander of the Southern department for the war department, authorized payment of the ransom and the relief party was immediately dispatched across the border on their dangerous errand.

BULLETIN, SAN ANTONIO, TEXAS, August 19—Official reports to the headquarters of the Southern Department of the War Department located here said that the full amount of $15,000 was paid to the bandits.

BULLETIN, AUSTIN TEXAS, August 19—Anticipating an early climax in Mexican affairs Governor Hoby today ordered a speeding up in recruiting to fill up the Texas National Guard to its full strength of 16,000 men. Adjutant General Harby has been ordered to proceed along these lines. The guard consists of two brigades of cavalry and one of infantry.

PITTSBURGH CARMEN TO TAKE ANOTHER VOTE

PITTSBURGH, August 19—Officials of the carmen's union announced today that a referendum vote will be taken on Thursday to decide whether the men will abide by their signed agreement or continue their strike in violation of the award of the National War Labor Board. The president of the carmen's union has strongly advised that they abide by the award but refuses to comment on the possible outcome of the vote. Indications are not strong that the carmen will vote to accept the award.

NEW YORK CAR STRIKE OFF

NEW YORK, August 19—Subway and elevated railways are operating as usual today following a two days strike causing one of the worst tieups ever experienced in the busy city. The men go back to work on a tentative settlement of a twenty-five per cent. increase in wages for all employees with arbitration provided for their additional wage demand and also for their additional grievances.

BULLETIN, EL PASO TEXAS, August 19—The Eighth U. S. Cavalry has crossed the border in pursuit of the bandits who have just released the two army officers after collecting a $15,000 ransom. The cavalrymen crossed the border below Candelaria. Army airplanes are assisting in the search for the trail of the bandits.

WASHINGTON D. C., August 19—While Secretary of War Baker and other war department officials declared they had received no confirmation of the report that the Eighth U. S. Cavalry had crossed the Mexican border in search of the bandits who held for ransom two army officers, it was freely admitted that Col. Langhorne of the Eighth had orders to cross the border in an attempt to locate the bandits just as soon as the ransom was paid and the men released. The state department had advised the war department that it was proper to take such action.

FRANCO-AMERICAN TREATY NOT IRREGULAR

WASHINGTON, D. C., August 19—The committee having in charge the consideration of the proposed Franco-British-American treaty for French defense reported the bill favorably today by unanimous vote of those present. Senator Fall was absent. The committee made a statement saying that it found nothing in their consideration which would indicate that the treaty would be unconstitutional.

NEBRASKA COURT
GIVES REFERENDUM
RIGHT ON DRY LAW

LINCOLN, NEB., Aug. 18.—The voters of Nebraska have the right to vote to reject or approve the action of the State Legislature in ratifying the Federal prohibition amendment, and until a vote is taken it cannot be said the Legislature has ratified the amendment, the District Court here held today.

The court so decided in granting a writ of mandamus directing the Secretary of State to accept and file petitions for a referendum on the Legislature's ratification. Application for the writ was made recently by John H. Hopkins, an Omaha attorney, after the Secretary of State refused to accept and file the petitions on the ground that he Legislature's ratification was not referable under the state initiative and referendum law.

Nebraska's Legislature ratified the amendment on January 16, last. It was the thirty-sixth state to ratify, and at that time furnished the requisite number of state endorsements to make nation-wide constitutional prohibition effective.

SOMETHING DOING
EVERY DAY THIS WEEK IN COUNTY

According to precedent and the belief of all patrons of the Frenchville picnic it will not rain tomorrow for it is tomorrow that the annual affair will be held. Clearfield always sends a big delegation to the Frenchville picnic and no doubt will contribute her usual share tomorrow.

On Thursday Burnside will hold a combined picnic and Victory celebration. The Annual Burnside Schools Reunion, the annual Cousins' Picnic, and the Community testimonial to returned service men will be combined into one big celebration and the little old town on the Susquehanna will properly celebrate. The affair will be held at the Connor Park. District Attorney Arnold, J. Frank Snyder, Esq., and County Superintendent W. P. Trostle will address the picnicers.

Friday is $ Day in Clearfield and it is going to draw one of the biggest crowds in the history of the annual event. The newspaper man is always on the inside of these affairs because he sees the advertisers' copy and knows what is coming. The merchants of Clearfield have once more entered into the real spirit of the occa-

BEER LEGALLY INTOXICATING

The question as to whether or not 2.75 per cent beer is intoxicating still remains a matter of opinion up here in the mountains of Clearfield county, but Jacob Snyder, proprietor of the Blue Ball hotel, now knows it is against the law to sell it while the war-time prohibitory law is in effect.

Mr. Snyder arrives at his knowledge of the case from Judge Bell's exposition of the war-time prohibition act in which he accepts Judge Thompson's Federal court opinion, which says in effect that the act of Congress plainly states that for the purposes of this act beer of the alcoholic strength of two and three quarters per cent. is intoxicating and must not be sold.

District Attorney Arnold petitioned the Clearfield county court yesterday morning for a revocation of the license of the Blue Ball hotel as an incident to the arrest on Saturday of Landlord Snyder for the sale of the "two and three quarters" beer. A rule was granted returnable Friday at which time the defendant was to be given the opportunity to show the court why the license should not be revoked. Snyder came to town yesterday afternoon, the date of the rule was changed and the hearing had.

When questioned regarding his sale of the prohibited beer Snyder said he wasn't sure it was a violation of the law. The Court promptly told him he would satisfy him on that point and forthwith revoked the license.

In disposing of the case Judge Bell handed down an opinion, which will no doubt make interesting reading, especially to those former license holders who promptly closed and locked up their hotels after the dry law went into effect July 1st, and refused to take care of travelers, despite the fact that they had produced voluminous evidence from time to time of the

U. S. WILL LIKELY GET IMPORTANT
ISLAND IN PACIFIC IN NEAR FUTURE

WASHINGTON, August 19—The United States may obtain control of the Island of Wap in the Pacific ocean, it developed at the meeting of the Senate Foreign Relations committee today. Control of the island for naval and commercial purposes is much desired by the United States. Naval authorities have pointed out to the president of the country the importance of having such a base and President Wilson told the committee that he specified at the Peace Conference that the control of the island was to be left open for settlement at a later date.

The President also told the committee that the U. S. had not waived the claim to reparation for the sinking of the Lusitania but that the U. S. had filed no claims with the general reparation committee except that of the Lusitania and in that case it will be left up to the reparation committee to adjust.

DON'T FORGET THE BALL GAME

Don't fail to go to the Frenchville picnic tomorrow if you feel like it, but whatever you do, don't miss that ball game at the Park Thursday evening at 6 o'clock. Clearfield baseball lovers have arranged with Jimmy DeHart's Western Pennsylvania college stars to represent Clearfield in a game against the newly organized semi-pro team from the city of DuBois.

DeHart's infield is composed of Fritz Scherlin, Red Hastings, Morrow, and DeHart, Pittsburgh University's famous football backfield, every member of which was selected for the All-American teams. They are as fast as the diamond as they were effective on the football field and baseball lovers will see a fine game Thursday evening.

DuBois has a fast team, too, but we just have to lick them. Come out and see it.

In the opinion of many travelers the most beautiful women in the world are the Indian women of the Tehuantepec district of Mexico.

"The Imposter" starts in tomorrow's issue.

No one wants to see another war. Nobody wants an expedition sent into Mexico. But how the United States is going to padron the repeated outrages committed by citizens of our neighbor is more than a proud American can understand.

How many times have you heard your neighbor say they would like to have The Progress but just put it off? Many times no doubt. Do these people and us a favor. Tell them that on Dollar Day The Progress is four months for a Dollar to old and new alike so long as they use the coupon.

PRICES GRADUALLY BREAKING

Things are beginning to break in favor of the consumer. There is a noticeable downward trend in prices of a number of necessities. In all of them there is a letup in increases and he who would add an extra profit on any necessity now is indeed stepping on dangerous ground. Prosecutions brought in many parts of the country have had a good effect on prices and a continuation of governmental activity in this direction will further help matters. The "fair price" committee plan should be put into operation at once and no doubt will be. The post office department sale will materially help and reports from the post offices throughout the county show that many people are availing themselves of the opportunity to buy at lower prices. Now to add to the further reduction in prices, at least locally, along comes the merchants with their annual Dollar Day when many bargains will be presented. It must be borne in mind, however that bargains today do not mean sacrifices or any great reduction in prices. It is not possible for the merchant today to make a great cut in prices on the necessities of life because the producer and the middle man has not yet been reached. However, the merchant is doing his part in this matter and every citizen of Clearfield county should take advantage of the opportunities of the day. People have learned to spend in dollars instead of in cents and as a result of this condition people have forgotten how to save in cents instead of dollars. Dollar Day will save cents and if it can be remembered that saving many cents makes the dollar, the purchaser will approach the festival from the proper angle. It is odd that a man will cross a street to spend a dollar but he will not step out of his way to save a penny. Let's all get the "penny saving step" habit. We can by that method reduce our living cost. One more suggestion—let us look over our garden. Five to one there is something spoiling there right now. If there is, pluck it and send it to a neighbor.

CONTROLLING NEAR BEERS

District Attorney Arnold's opinion on the sale of beverages with alcoholic content does not mean that beverages contain any alcohol in minor quantities cannot be sold in the county at all but rather that all such sales of beverages with alcoholic content must be through the channels of the licensed saloons which under the terms of the Brooks law have obtained their license to sell liquors.

The Brooks law, it is understood, is still in effect but the federal law has intervened to stop the sale of concoctions containing more than one half of one per cent. alcohol.

The effect of the enforcement of the law under the Arnold decision will be to limit the sales of all near beers to licensed saloons entirely and abolish them from stores, restaurants, pool rooms and all other business places.

The wholesale dispensing of near beers and miscellaneous beverages without regulation or license of any kind whatsoever is not productive of good results to anybody and while we would

LOYD GEORGE IS ALARMED AT THE OUTLOOK FOR THE BRITISH EMPIRE

LONDON, August 19.—David Lloyd George, apostle of optimism whose sanguine manner of speech time and again bucked up the failing morale of his countrymen, in the dark days of the war, came perilously close to losing his reputation today, for his three hour address in the Commons was the gloomiest Britain has heard since the great conflict engulfed the world.

"We must come down to realities and let the nation face them" was the way he explained affairs and hard, cruelly hard, realities they are, the "little Welsh wizard," told the people of the proud sea-ruling empire. They included figures such as these:

Britain's national debt today $39,000,000,000.

Trade balance against her $4,000,000,000.

And throughout the prime minister's speech there ran the dread of two things:

1—Industrial breakdown through labor unrest.

2—The outstripping of Britain in the world market by America.

It was the first in the empire's history that a prime minister was forced to make this dread of America the rallying cry to the United Kingdom people.

"In America," said Mr. George, "the wages are higher, hours of labor are no longer and labor cost in proportion to the article produced is less. This being the case, competition is impossible and no tariff will remedy this. And later on:

"We cannot prosper—we cannot even exist without recovering our international trade. We must bring up the trade balance. Add to our exports and lessening of our imports.

There was one point in the reference to America which seemed significant to American listeners. He declared that peace with Turkey was delayed by American slowness in determining whether she is ready to protect the Armenians from massacre.

Of concrete measures announced by the premier the two most important were:

1—Purchase by the state of the mineral rights in coal. The Sankey commission scheme for nationalization is rejected but its plan for the "unification and reorganization of the coal industry is accepted in principle."

2—Lifting of the import restrictions, effective September with substitute measures for the protection of British trade.

An announcement of world wide importance was the statement that Britain is ready to lead in the reduction of armament for which he made a strong plea.

The premier expressed the hope that peace would be ratified by September 1.

With the lifting of the import restriction, he said, powers will be given the Board of Trade to prevent "dumping." The government will aid the "key industries" and proposes to guard against the importations of large quantities.

The House was packed. Now and then the premier was interrupted by cheering, notably when he announced the lifting of the import ban.

FORMER RESIDENT DIES AT FRANKLIN

Mrs. Catherine Burley McClellan, formerly a resident of Clearfield, residing on Reed street and later making her home with her son Mr. Frank McClellan of East End, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. John Hunter, at Franklin, Pa., Tuesday, August 12th, 1919. The deceased was 84 years old and was born at Tipton, Blair county, Pa. Interment was made in Franklin cemetery.

She is survived by the following children: Frank and Burl and Mrs. John Hunter, of Franklin, and Mrs. Frank Billingsly, of Oil City, Pa.

prefer an absolute non-alcoholic law it would seem to be much better to bring the sale of all alcoholic beverages under the roof and control of the saloon and court. Just now there are more varieties of near beers than there are of maple leaves and no doubt the major portion of them are of the most harmful nature and many of them should be banned but never will be so long as every Tom, Dick and Harry can manufacture and sell them.

Once the near beers are brought in competition with one another in a regular fashion the worthless ones will quickly disappear but while they are in display in candy shops and corner stores the small boy has the opportunity to imbibe of chemically colored slop in fancy labeled bottles, something he could not do if they were brought under the terms of the Brooks law.

Since Judge Bell has indicated that the failure of a license holder to entertain the traveling public will be sufficient cause for revocation of his license it would not appear to be just to compel the hotel man to pay a license and give accommodations for a privilege which others exercise without cost or restraint.

We reaffirm our belief that the ideal way would be an absolute ban on beverages containing any percentage of alcohol but the hard cold fact remains that the near beer trade must be regulated and the Brooks law is the only available method of control.

INFORMATION FOR SOLDIERS,
SAILORS AND MARINES FOR
VOTING PRIVILEGES

The present session of legislature has made provision whereby any soldier, sailor or marine in service, or who has served in the army or navy of the United States and who has returned to his home, shall be entitled to vote in his respective election district even though he has not been assessed and has not paid the usual taxes, or is not personally registered in the district in which he resides, provided that such election at which he offers to vote shall occur at such time as has prevented him from being assessed and from having paid his usual taxes and where the same is necessary from having been personally registered after his return to his home as is required in the case of an elector by the constitution.

The provision of this Act requires that he shall produce to the election officer a receipt from the proper tax collector setting forth that such person has paid a county tax of ten cents (10c). The several tax collectors are authorized to receive such tax of ten cents.

All that is necessary for a soldier, sailor or marine who has returned after the registration period in townships and boroughs is for him to pay ten cents to the tax collector in his voting district, secure a tax receipt for that amount, and be prepared to present it to the election board on day of the election.

The same rule applies to DuBois City except that he should present his tax receipt to the Registrar of his voting precinct on one of the days for registration of voters in Third Class Cities.

Selling 2.75 Beer Brings Revocation Of Hotel License

intoxicating malt or vinous liquor shall be sold for beverage purposes except for export,” and further setting out that the said Jacob Snyder, acting with disregard of the law of the United States, was selling and exposing for sale beer at the said licensed hotel aforesaid. Whereupon, by agreement of counsel, the case came on to be heard August 18th, 1919, at 3 o'clock p. m. and from testimony taken it appeared that said licensee did from the 8th to the 16th of August engage in the sale of beer to the general public at said hotel, which beer was labeled not to exceed 2 3/4 per cent. alcohol. It further appeared that immediately following June 30th, 1919, the said Jacob Snyder closed the said hotel and did not thereafter keep the same open for the accommodation of the public, and the entertainment of strangers and travellers until August 8th, 1919, when he re-opened the same and proceeded to again accommodate the public during the period in which he engaged in the sale of said beer.

The construction to be given to the said Act of Congress which commends itself to this court is that stated in the United States District Court for the Western District of Pennsylvania by Judge Thompson, in United States vs. Pittsburgh Brewing Co., et al and which is in part as follows: “So here when Congress used the words ‘beer, wine and other intoxicating beverages’ we have a legislative declaration that beer and wine are intoxicating beverages. This being true, it is not necessary in the information or indictment to aver their intoxicating character because the Legislature has so declared. The defendants may avoid on trial the effects of the statute by proof that the beverage which they sell is in fact neither beer, wine or spirits.” It is admitted for the purposes of this hearing that the defendant did sell nearly 100 cases of beer from August 8th to August 16th. It further appears from the testimony of the licenses that he knew that such sale was unlawful and as he puts it, he did not know at the time he was making the sale whether it was lawful or not.

Under the law of Pennsylvania it is mandatory upon the court to revoke a license when it is shown that the party holding said license has during its term violated any law of this Commonwealth relating to the sale of liquor, though it has been said by the court that there are some exceptional cases where such a result need not follow. In this District the position taken by the Court as to the validity of the acts done is well known. The several licensees in the county have, so far as the court has heard, without exception, recognized the effects of the Federal legislation to require the discontinuance of their sales and as good citizens they have complied therewith. In this case in addition thereto the licensee, notwithstanding his representation that the house was necessary for the accommodation of the public, promptly closed it and discontinued furnishing accommodations to the public when not engaged in the sale of liquors, which of itself would strongly move the court to a revocation of the license. We cannot help regarding the acts of the licensee here, in selling beer in violation of the Act of Congress and upon the state of facts shown, as constituting such conduct as cannot be permitted by one who holds a privilege from this court.

Now, August 18th, 1919, the license heretofore granted to Albert M. Jones and transferred to Jacob Snyder is revoked, the costs of the proceeding to be paid by the said Jacob Snyder.

NEWS OF OUR NEIGHBORS

CURWENSVILLE

Clair Rorabaugh and son, residents of New York City, are visiting the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Rorabaugh. Clair is engaged in the insurance business in that city.

Mrs. Cloyd Holton, of Altoona, who was a visitor in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Rougeux on Bloomington avenue, received the sad intelligence Sunday that a daughter who was out with a camping party had been drowned. She left for her home on Monday morning.

Mrs. Sherman Passmore and son, of Greensburg, are visiting with relatives in Curwensville. Miss Genevieve Maurey, who had been a guest in the Passmore home, returned home with her aunt.

Petty thieving is being done quite extensively in town. Last Saturday evening some one broke into the cellar at the home of David Sipes and purloined a 4-pound roll of fresh butter. Several other places have been reported as having been entered.

The Christian Endeavor society of the Presbyterian church held a picnic supper at Susquehanna bridge last Friday evening. A corn roast was held later in the evening to which all did justice. About sixty persons were present.

The Curwensville Alumni Association will hold their second annual picnic on Thursday, August 21st, at Irvin Park. Each member has the privilege of inviting a guest and baskets can be arranged together. The afternoon will be spent in baseball, games, swimming, etc. Supper will be served at six o'clock, followed by a corn roast in the evening. A meeting of the Association will be held in the High School building this evening at 8 o'clock to perfect arrangements for the picnic.

Unless something is done quickly about mending the brick streets on South Side, Curwensville borough will be compelled to pay for an automobile or two. Now is the time to repair while the good weather lasts.

Parties who were out on the mountains last Sunday report the high blue huckleberries as plentiful, yet the price still holds up to 20 cents per quart, whether picked on a Sunday or during the week.

The Democratic party of this borough met in caucus Saturday evening and placed a full ticket in the field to be voted for at the primary.

The sporting element of Curwensville and vicinity would be pleased if John Kelly would receive the appointment of field game warden, the same office which was held by his brother, “Woody” Kelly, at the time he was killed.

The new store room on State street which will be occupied by Lew Vaughan as a clothing store, is fast approaching completion.

Pathe Phonographs And Records

After months of searching in the Phonograph fields, for something new and better we have reached a decision that the Pathe Phonograph and Pathe Records are a combination which it is hard to beat, in fact in our minds it is the one best Phonograph. Come in and let us show it to you and tell you about it. We have visited dozens of dealers in different cities visited the factories where they are made, and we can assure you that it is an honest made piece of merchandise.

The Pathe instrument in the excellence of tone, in the beauty of cabinet design, in the finish of the woods and in the care of assembling, is the most perfect phonograph that human skill and genius can produce.

The Pathe Sapphire Ball which does away with the old fashioned steel needles glides smoothly around the record like a drop of water. This round polished ball fits exactly into every record groove, and accurately reproduces every shading of the selection. The music flows off it isn't scratched off. No needles to change, no needles to buy, always ready to play. No wear on the records. Every Pathe record is guaranteed to play 1000 times.

The all wood violin tone chamber eliminates the harsh metallic sound so objectionable in the ordinary Talking Machine.

The Pathe Controlla enables you to play any record loudly or softly with the same sapphire ball. The martial strains of a Pathe band record can be softened for your drawing room or you can make the lively jazz of the latest dance music loud enough to be heard over the entire dance floor.

And remember that the Pathe plays all makes of records.

You can play Pathe records on Your Phonograph with a sapphire ball and attachment which because of the tremendous demand we are able to sell at only

Then your Phonograph will play Pathe and all makes of Records.

NUMBER 35

SALE OF ALL NEAR BEERS VIOLATION
OF BROOKS HIGH LICENSE LAW

Ever since war-time prohibition went into effect without a proper or understandable general enforcement act there has been more or less confusion in legal and other circles regarding the right of sale of "war beer", "near beer" and other concoctions designed to take the place of the old-fashioned lager.

In fact the average legal mind appeared to be as much muddled by the alleged non-alcoholic or mildly alcoholic beverages as they were supposed to get after taking on board a plentiful quantity of the real old "red likker."

As a result of this uncertainty among the legal fraternity the poor thirsty layman sure was up in the air and knew not what to do or whither to turn. Result again was that he and they "plunged" and drug stores, billiard rooms, restaurants, grocery stores and other establishments all embarked in the "near beer" business and "one-half of one per cent." ran riot down the parched throats of those formerly prone to dally with the cup that cheers.

An end was bound to come and it has finally arrived. To end the uncertainty in Clearfield County, at least, the matter was put up to District Attorney John C. Arnold in his official capacity as public prosecutor, and he was asked to determine just what the laws of Pennsylvania or more properly speaking the Brooks High License Law, provided, and which provisions would have to be invoked in case of any prosecution concerning liquor law violations. Mr. Arnold gave the matter his usual careful consideration and presents herewith his findings in the matter, which we give for the benefit of our readers and the public generally and in order that those dealers engaging in the sale of these beverages may be apprised of its illegality under the law.

Mr. Arnold's opinion follows:

"Out of fairness to persons who may have been innocently engaging in the sale of so-called 'near beer' and other beverages containing low percentage of alcohol, attention is called to the fact that our Superior Court in the case of Commonwealth vs. Wenzel, held: That the sale by persons not having a liquor license of a beverage containing any percentage (however small) of alcohol as an essential ingredient, is a violation of the Brooks High License law. It is no defense to show that the beverage is not intoxicating if it contains alcohol.

JOHN C. ARNOLD
FREEDOM TO CAPTIVE ARMY OFFICERS

BULLETIN, EL PASO, TEXAS, August 19—Lieut. Paul H. Davis and Lieut. Harold G. Peterson, set free by Mexican bandits on payment of $15,000 ransom according to terms laid down by the bandits, are reported to have crossed the American border at a point near Candelaria and not far from Marfa, Texas.

Captain Matlock of the Eighth U. S. Cavalry carried the ransom money to the bandit camp and obtained their release. Captain Matlock was accompanied by a small detachment of guards and Vice President H. M. Fennel of the Marfa, Texas, National bank who had the money in charge.

The aviator's story of their experiences since being captured on August 10th is expected to bear out the belief that they were taken captive on the American side of the border in the Big Ben district by a roving band of bandits who infest the mountains for cattle and any other loot they can find.

Major General Joseph T. Dickman, commander of the Southern department for the war department, authorized payment of the ransom and the relief party was immediately dispatched across the border on their dangerous errand.

BULLETIN, SAN ANTONIO, TEXAS, August 19—Official reports to the headquarters of the Southern Department of the War Department located here said that the full amount of $15,000 was paid to the bandits.

BULLETIN, AUSTIN TEXAS, August 19—Anticipating an early climax in Mexican affairs Governor Hoby today ordered a speeding up in recruiting to fill up the Texas National Guard to its full strength of 16,000 men. Adjutant General Harly has been ordered to proceed along these lines. The guard consists of two brigades of cavalry and one of infantry.

PITTSBURGH CARMEN TO TAKE ANOTHER VOTE

PITTSBURGH, August 19—Officials of the carmen's union announced today that a referendum vote will be taken on Thursday to decide whether the men will abide by their signed agreement or continue their strike in violation of the award of the National War Labor Board. The president of the carmen's union has strongly advised that they abide by the award but refuses to comment on the possible outcome of the vote. Indications are not strong that the carmen will vote to accept the award.

NEW YORK CAR STRIKE OFF

NEW YORK, August 19—Subway and elevated railways are operating as usual today following a two days strike causing one of the worst tieups ever experienced in the busy city. The men go back to work on a tentative settlement of a twenty-five per cent. increase in wages for all employees with arbitration provided for their additional wage demand and also for their additional grievances.

BULLETIN, EL PASO TEXAS, August 19—The Eighth U. S. Cavalry has crossed the border in pursuit of the bandits who have just released the two army officers after collecting a $15,000 ransom. The cavalrymen crossed the border below Candelaria. Army airplanes are assisting in the search for the trail of the bandits.

WASHINGTON D. C., August 19—While Secretary of War Baker and other war department officials declared they had received no confirmation of the report that the Eighth U. S. Cavalry had crossed the Mexican border in search of the bandits who held for ransom two army officers, it was freely admitted that Col. Langhorne of the Eighth had orders to cross the border in an attempt to locate the bandits just as soon as the ransom was paid and the men released. The state department had advised the war department that it was proper to take such action.

GIVES REFERENDUM
RIGHT ON DRY LAW

LINCOLN, NEB., Aug. 18.—The voters of Nebraska have the right to vote to reject or approve the action of the State Legislature in ratifying the Federal prohibition amendment, and until a vote is taken it cannot be said the Legislature has ratified the amendment, the District Court here held today.

The court so decided in granting a writ of mandamus directing the Secretary of State to accept and file petitions for a referendum on the Legislature's ratification. Application for the writ was made recently by John H. Hopkins, an Omaha attorney, after the Secretary of State refused to accept and file the petitions on the ground that he Legislature's ratification was not referable under the state initiative and referendum law.

Nebraska's Legislature ratified the amendment on January 16, last. It was the thirty-sixth state to ratify, and at that time furnished the requisite number of state endorsements to make nation-wide constitutional prohibition effective.

SOMETHING DOING
EVERY DAY THIS WEEK IN COUNTY

According to precedent and the belief of all patrons of the Frenchville picnic it will not rain tomorrow for it is tomorrow that the annual affair will be held. Clearfield always sends a big delegation to the Frenchville picnic and no doubt will contribute her usual share tomorrow.

On Thursday Burnside will hold a combined picnic and Victory celebration. The Annual Burnside Schools Reunion, the annual Cousins' Picnic, and the Community testimonial to returned service men will be combined into one big celebration and the little old town on the Susquehanna will properly celebrate. The affair will be held at the Connor Park. District Attorney Arnold, J. Frank Snyder, Esq., and County Superintendent W. P. Trostle will address the picnicers.

Friday is $ Day in Clearfield and it is going to draw one of the biggest crowds in the history of the annual event. The newspaper man is always on the inside of these affairs because he sees the advertisers' copy and knows what is coming. The merchants of Clearfield have once more entered into the real spirit of the occa-

BEER LEGALLY INTOXICATING

The question as to whether or not 2.75 per cent beer is intoxicating still remains a matter of opinion up here in the mountains of Clearfield county, but Jacob Snyder, proprietor of the Blue Ball hotel, now knows it is against the law to sell it while the war-time prohibitory law is in effect.

Mr. Snyder arrives at his knowledge of the case from Judge Bell's exposition of the war-time prohibition act in which he accepts Judge Thompson's Federal court opinion, which says in effect that the act of Congress plainly states that for the purposes of this act beer of the alcoholic strength of two and three quarters per cent. is intoxicating and must not be sold.

District Attorney Arnold petitioned the Clearfield county court yesterday morning for a revocation of the license of the Blue Ball hotel as an incident to the arrest on Saturday of Landlord Snyder for the sale of the "two and three quarters" beer. A rule was granted returnable Friday at which time the defendant was to be given the opportunity to show the court why the license should not be revoked. Snyder came to town yesterday afternoon, the date of the rule was changed and the hearing had.

When questioned regarding his sale of the prohibited beer Snyder said he wasn't sure it was a violation of the law. The Court promptly told him he would satisfy him on that point and forthwith revoked the license.

In disposing of the case Judge Bell handed down an opinion, which will no doubt make interesting reading, especially to those former license holders who promptly closed and locked up their hotels after the dry law went into effect July 1st, and refused to take care of travelers, despite the fact that they had produced voluminous evidence from time to time of the

ISLAND IN PACIFIC IN NEAR FUTURE

WASHINGTON, August 19—The United States may obtain control of the Island of Wap in the Pacific ocean, it developed at the meeting of the Senate Foreign Relations committee today. Control of the island for naval and commercial purposes is much desired by the United States. Naval authorities have pointed out to the president of the country the importance of having such a base and President Wilson told the committee that he specified at the Peace Conference that the control of the island was to be left open for settlement at a later date.

The President also told the committee that the U. S. had not waived the claim to reparation for the sinking of the Lusitania but that the U. S. had filed no claims with the general reparation committee except that of the Lusitania and in that case it will be left up to the reparation committee to adjust.

DON'T FORGET THE BALL GAME

Don't fail to go to the Frenchville picnic tomorrow if you feel like it, but whatever you do, don't miss that ball game at the Park Thursday evening at 6 o'clock. Clearfield baseball lovers have arranged with Jimmy DeHart's Western Pennsylvania college stars to represent Clearfield in a game against the newly organized semi-pro team from the city of DuBois.

DeHart's infield is composed of Fritz Scherlin, Red Hastings, Morrow, and DeHart, Pittsburgh University's famous football backfield, every member of which was selected for the All-American teams. They are as fast as the diamond as they were effective on the football field and baseball lovers will see a fine game Thursday evening.

DuBois has a fast team, too, but we just have to lick them. Come out and see it.

In the opinion of many travelers the most beautiful women in the world are the Indian women of the Tehuantepec district of Mexico.

No one wants to see another war. Nobody wants an expedition sent into Mexico. But how the United States is going to padron the repeated outrages committed by citizens of our neighbor is more than a proud American can understand.

How many times have you heard your neighbor say they would like to have The Progress but just put it off? Many times no doubt. Do these people and us a favor. Tell them that on Dollar Day The Progress is four months for a Dollar to old and new alike so long as they use the coupon.

PRICES GRADUALLY BREAKING

Things are beginning to break in favor of the consumer. There is a noticeable downward trend in prices of a number of necessities. In all of them there is a letup in increases and he who would add an extra profit on any necessity now is indeed stepping on dangerous ground. Prosecutions brought in many parts of the country have had a good effect on prices and a continuation of governmental activity in this direction will further help matters. The "fair price" committee plan should be put into operation at once and no doubt will be. The post office department sale will materially help and reports from the post offices throughout the county show that many people are availing themselves of the opportunity to buy at lower prices. Now to add to the further reduction in prices, at least locally, along comes the merchants with their annual Dollar Day when many bargains will be presented. It must be borne in mind, however that bargains today do not mean sacrifices or any great reduction in prices. It is not possible for the merchant today to make a great cut in prices on the necessities of life because the producer and the middle man has not yet been reached. However, the merchant is doing his part in this matter and every citizen of Clearfield county should take advantage of the opportunities of the day. People have learned to spend in dollars instead of in cents and as a result of this condition people have forgotten how to save in cents instead of dollars. Dollar Day will save cents and if it can be remembered that saving many cents makes the dollar, the purchaser will approach the festival from the proper angle. It is odd that a man will cross a street to spend a dollar but he will not step out of his way to save a penny. Let's all get the "penny saving step" habit. We can by that method reduce our living cost. One more suggestion—let us look over our garden. Five to one there is something spoiling there right now. If there is, pluck it and send it to a neighbor.

CONTROLLING NEAR BEERS

District Attorney Arnold's opinion on the sale of beverages with alcoholic content does not mean that beverages contain any alcohol in minor quantities cannot be sold in the county at all but rather that all such sales of beverages with alcoholic content must be through the channels of the licensed saloons which under the terms of the Brooks law have obtained their license to sell liquors.

The Brooks law, it is understood, is still in effect but the federal law has intervened to stop the sale of concoctions containing more than one half of one per cent. alcohol.

The effect of the enforcement of the law under the Arnold decision will be to limit the sales of all near beers to licensed saloons entirely and abolish them from stores, restaurants, pool rooms and all other business places.

The wholesale dispensing of near beers and miscellaneous beverages without regulation or license of any kind whatsoever is not productive of good results to anybody and while we would

LOYD GEORGE IS ALARMED AT THE OUTLOOK FOR THE BRITISH EMPIRE

LONDON, August 19.—David Lloyd George, apostle of optimism whose sanguine manner of speech time and again bucked up the failing morale of his countrymen, in the dark days of the war, came perilously close to losing his reputation today, for his three hour address in the Commons was the gloomiest Britain has heard since the great conflict engulfed the world.

"We must come down to realities and let the nation face them" was the way he explained affairs and hard, cruelly hard, realities they are, the "little Welsh wizard," told the people of the proud sea-ruling empire. They included figures such as these:

Britain's national debt today $39,000,000,000.

Trade balance against her $4,000,000,000.

And throughout the prime minister's speech there ran the dread of two things:

1—Industrial breakdown through labor unrest.

2—The outstripping of Britain in the world market by America.

It was the first in the empire's history that a prime minister was forced to make this dread of America the rallying cry to the United Kingdom people.

"In America," said Mr. George, "the wages are higher, hours of labor are no longer and labor cost in proportion to the article produced is less. This being the case, competition is impossible and no tariff will remedy this. And later on:

"We cannot prosper—we cannot even exist without recovering our international trade. We must bring up the trade balance. Add to our exports and lessening of our imports.

There was one point in the reference to America which seemed significant to American listeners. He declared that peace with Turkey was delayed by American slowness in determining whether she is ready to protect the Armenians from massacre.

Of concrete measures announced by the premier the two most important were:

1—Purchase by the state of the mineral rights in coal. The Sankey commission scheme for nationalization is rejected but its plan for the "unification and reorganization of the coal industry is accepted in principle."

2—Lifting of the import restrictions, effective September with substitute measures for the protection of British trade.

An announcement of world wide importance was the statement that Britain is ready to lead in the reduction of armament for which he made a strong plea.

The premier expressed the hope that peace would be ratified by September 1.

With the lifting of the import restriction, he said, powers will be given the Board of Trade to prevent "dumping." The government will aid the "key industries" and proposes to guard against the importations of large quantities.

The House was packed. Now and then the premier was interrupted by cheering, notably when he announced the lifting of the import ban.

FORMER RESIDENT DIES AT FRANKLIN

Mrs. Catherine Burley McClellan, formerly a resident of Clearfield, residing on Reed street and later making her home with her son Mr. Frank McClellan of East End, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. John Hunter, at Franklin, Pa., Tuesday, August 12th, 1919. The deceased was 84 years old and was born at Tipton, Blair county, Pa. Interment was made in Franklin cemetery.

She is survived by the following children: Frank and Burl and Mrs. John Hunter, of Franklin, and Mrs. Frank Billingsly, of Oil City, Pa.

prefer an absolute non-alcoholic law it would seem to be much better to bring the sale of all alcoholic beverages under the roof and control of the saloon and court. Just now there are more varieties of near beers than there are of maple leaves and no doubt the major portion of them are of the most harmful nature and many of them should be banned but never will be so long as every Tom, Dick and Harry can manufacture and sell them.

Once the near beers are brought in competition with one another in a regular fashion the worthless ones will quickly disappear but while they are in display in candy shops and corner stores the small boy has the opportunity to imbibe of chemically colored slop in fancy labeled bottles, something he could not do if they were brought under the terms of the Brooks law.

Since Judge Bell has indicated that the failure of a license holder to entertain the traveling public will be sufficient cause for revocation of his license it would not appear to be just to compel the hotel man to pay a license and give accommodations for a privilege which others exercise without cost or restraint.

We reaffirm our belief that the ideal way would be an absolute ban on beverages containing any percentage of alcohol but the hard cold fact remains that the near beer trade must be regulated and the Brooks law is the only available method of control.

INFORMATION FOR SOLDIERS,
SAILORS AND MARINES FOR
VOTING PRIVILEGES

The present session of legislature has made provision whereby any soldier, sailor or marine in service, or who has served in the army or navy of the United States and who has returned to his home, shall be entitled to vote in his respective election district even though he has not been assessed and has not paid the usual taxes, or is not personally registered in the district in which he resides, provided that such election at which he offers to vote shall occur at such time as has prevented him from being assessed and from having paid his usual taxes and where the same is necessary from having been personally registered after his return to his home as is required in the case of an elector by the constitution.

The provision of this Act requires that he shall produce to the election officer a receipt from the proper tax collector setting forth that such person has paid a county tax of ten cents (10c). The several tax collectors are authorized to receive such tax of ten cents.

All that is necessary for a soldier, sailor or marine who has returned after the registration period in townships and boroughs is for him to pay ten cents to the tax collector in his voting district, secure a tax receipt for that amount, and be prepared to present it to the election board on day of the election.

The same rule applies to DuBois City except that he should present his tax receipt to the Registrar of his voting precinct on one of the days for registration of voters in Third Class Cities.

Selling 2.75 Beer Brings Revocation Of Hotel License

intoxicating malt or vinous liquor shall be sold for beverage purposes except for export," and further setting out that the said Jacob Snyder, acting with disregard of the law of the United States, was selling and exposing for sale beer at the said licensed hotel aforesaid. Whereupon, by agreement of counsel, the case came on to be heard August 18th, 1919, at 3 o'clock p. m. and from testimony taken it appeared that said licensee did from the 8th to the 16th of August engage in the sale of beer to the general public at said hotel, which beer was labeled not to exceed 2 3/4 per cent. alcohol. It further appeared that immediately following June 30th, 1919, the said Jacob Snyder closed the said hotel and did not thereafter keep the same open for the accommodation of the public, and the entertainment of strangers and travellers until August 8th, 1919, when he re-opened the same and proceeded to again accommodate the public during the period in which he engaged in the sale of said beer.

The construction to be given to the said Act of Congress which commends itself to this court is that stated in the United States District Court for the Western District of Pennsylvania by Judge Thompson, in United States vs. Pittsburgh Brewing Co., et al and which is in part as follows: "So here when Congress used the words 'beer, wine and other intoxicating beverages' we have a legislative declaration that beer and wine are intoxicating beverages. This being true, it is not necessary in the information or indictment to aver their intoxicating character because the Legislature has so declared. The defendants may avoid on trial the effects of the statute by proof that the beverage which they sell is in fact neither beer, wine or spirits." It is admitted for the purposes of this hearing that the defendant did sell nearly 100 cases of beer from August 8th to August 16th. It further appears from the testimony of the licenses that he knew that such sale was unlawful and as he puts it, he did not know at the time he was making the sale whether it was lawful or not.

Under the law of Pennsylvania it is mandatory upon the court to revoke a license when it is shown that the party holding said license has during its term violated any law of this Commonwealth relating to the sale of liquor, though it has been said by the court that there are some exceptional cases where such a result need not follow. In this District the position taken by the Court as to the validity of the acts done is well known. The several licensees in the county have, so far as the court has heard, without exception, recognized the effects of the Federal legislation to require the discontinuance of their sales and as good citizens they have complied therewith. In this case in addition thereto the licensee, notwithstanding his representation that the house was necessary for the accommodation of the public, promptly closed it and discontinued furnishing accommodations to the public when not engaged in the sale of liquors, which of itself would strongly move the court to a revocation of the license. We cannot help regarding the acts of the licensee here, in selling beer in violation of the Act of Congress and upon the state of facts shown, as constituting such conduct as cannot be permitted by one who holds a privilege from this court.

Now, August 18th, 1919, the license heretofore granted to Albert M. Jones and transferred to Jacob Snyder is revoked, the costs of the proceeding to be paid by the said Jacob Snyder.

Mrs. Sherman Passmore and son, of Greensburg, are visiting with relatives in Curwensville. Miss Genevieve Maurey, who had been a guest in the Passmore home, returned home with her aunt.

Petty thieving is being done quite extensively in town. Last Saturday evening some one broke into the cellar at the home of David Sipes and purloined a 4-pound roll of fresh butter. Several other places have been reported as having been entered.

The Christian Endeavor society of the Presbyterian church held a picnic supper at Susquehanna bridge last Friday evening. A corn roast was held later in the evening to which all did justice. About sixty persons were present.

The Curwensville Alumni Association will hold their second annual picnic on Thursday, August 21st, at Irvin Park. Each member has the privilege of inviting a guest and baskets can be arranged together. The afternoon will be spent in baseball, games, swimming, etc. Supper will be served at six o'clock, followed by a corn roast in the evening. A meeting of the Association will be held in the High School building this evening at 8 o'clock to perfect arrangements for the picnic.

Unless something is done quickly about mending the brick streets on South Side, Curwensville borough will be compelled to pay for an automobile or two. Now is the time to repair while the good weather lasts.

Parties who were out on the mountains last Sunday report the high blue huckleberries as plentiful, yet the price still holds up to 20 cents per quart, whether picked on a Sunday or during the week.

The Democratic party of this borough met in caucus Saturday evening and placed a full ticket in the field to be voted for at the primary.

The sporting element of Curwensville and vicinity would be pleased if John Kelly would receive the appointment of field game warden, the same office which was held by his brother, "Woody" Kelly, at the time he was killed.

The new store room on State street which will be occupied by Lew Vaughan as a clothing store, is fast approaching completion.

Pathe Phonographs And Records

After months of searching in the Phonograph fields, for something new and better we have reached a decision that the Pathe Phonograph and Pathe Records are a combination which it is hard to beat, in fact in our minds it is the one best Phonograph. Come in and let us show it to you and tell you about it. We have visited dozens of dealers in different cities visited the factories where they are made, and we can assure you that it is an honest made piece of merchandise.

The Pathe instrument in the excellence of tone, in the beauty of cabinet design, in the finish of the woods and in the care of assembling, is the most perfect phonograph that human skill and genius can produce.

The Pathe Sapphire Ball which does away with the old fashioned steel needles glides smoothly around the record like a drop of water. This round polished ball fits exactly into every record groove, and accurately reproduces every shading of the selection. The music flows off it isn't scratched off. No needles to change, no needles to buy, always ready to play. No wear on the records. Every Pathe record is guaranteed to play 1000 times.

The all wood violin tone chamber eliminates the harsh metallic sound so objectionable in the ordinary Talking Machine.

The Pathe Controlla enables you to play any record loudly or softly with the same sapphire ball. The martial strains of a Pathe band record can be softened for your drawing room or you can make the lively jazz of the latest dance music loud enough to be heard over the entire dance floor.

And remember that the Pathe plays all makes of records.

You can play Pathe records on Your Phonograph with a sapphire ball and attachment which because of the tremendous demand we are able to sell at only
